

Tyler D. Schofield

Associate

Detroit
T 313-393-7526
tschofield@bodmanlaw.com

Mr. Schofield is a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. He represents businesses and individual clients in connection with commercial and significant residential real estate transactions, including land acquisition, financing, land development and leasing, and general real property management.

He also conducts legal due diligence in connection with the real estate aspects of M&A and secured transactions involving properties located in multiple U.S. states.

Before joining Bodman as an associate attorney, Mr. Schofield spent a summer with the firm as a law clerk. He has served as a legal extern to Judge Kathleen Kennedy of the Illinois Circuit Court of Cook County, Chancery Division, where he performed research, drafted memoranda and rulings, and gained experience with the justice system. He has held a variety of roles with sports organizations dedicated to baseball and hockey, including as bookkeeper, head coach, and general manager.

At Northwestern Pritzker School of Law, Mr. Schofield worked in the Entrepreneurship Legal Clinic where he gained experience advising several start-up entities. As an undergraduate at Madonna University, Mr. Schofield was a three-time academic All American as a member of the baseball team.

RELATED NEWS

11/22/2017

Five Associates Join Bodman

practices & industries
Real Estate

education
Northwestern Pritzker
School of Law, J.D.
Madonna University, B.S., with admissions

Michigan