Megan Fink is Vice Chair of Bodman's Intellectual Property Practice Group. Her practice focuses on trademark law and brand protection.

She advises businesses of all sizes on a wide range of trademark matters in the U.S. and international markets, collaborates with foreign law firms on worldwide trademark protection, and provides counseling regarding U.S. use and registration. She also has experience advising clients on copyright matters and domain name issues, trade dress, advertising, and trade secrets.

Before joining Bodman, Ms. Fink had a diverse legal and business career that included experience as an associate attorney with a large Detroit-based law firm, as a litigation attorney and regional director in the southeast Michigan office of a national law firm, and as the owner and president of a personal health and wellness services company. She also worked with a general practice law firm where she represented business and individual clients in a broad range of transactional and civil litigation matters.?? Before becoming an attorney, Ms. Fink was a senior consultant in human capital services with Arthur Andersen LLP in Chicago.

While in law school, Ms. Fink served as a law clerk in the General Law Bureau of the Office of the Attorney General for the State of Illinois.
