Megan Fink is Vice Chair of Bodman's Intellectual Property Practice Group. She represents clients in connection with trademark registrations and brand protection matters.

Before joining Bodman, Ms. Fink had a diverse legal and business career that included experience as an associate attorney with a large Detroit-based law firm, as a litigation attorney and regional director in the southeast Michigan office of a national law firm, and as the owner and president of a personal health and wellness services company. She also worked with a general practice law firm where she represented business and individual clients in a broad range of transactional and civil litigation matters. Before becoming an attorney, Ms. Fink was a senior consultant in human capital services with Arthur Andersen LLP in Chicago.

While in law school, Ms. Fink served as a law clerk in the General Law Bureau of the Office of the Attorney General for the State of Illinois.
