REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Representation of Michigan Association of Non-public Schools

Successfully represented Michigan Association of Non-public Schools and all Christian religious schools in a lawsuit seeking to enjoin state action that prevented religious schools from conducting in-person learning. Michigan Association of Non-Public Schools, et al v. Gordon, No. 20-cv-01174.

- Representation of Health Insurer in Litigation Alleging Antitrust Violations

Represents one of Michigan’s largest health care insurers in antitrust litigation alleging that its contracts with various hospital providers were anticompetitive and unreasonably restrained trade in violation of both the Sherman Act and the Michigan Antitrust Reform Act.

- Representation of Health Insurer in Complex Multidistrict Litigation Alleging Antitrust Violations

Represents Michigan’s largest health care insurer in a national class action involving hundreds of parties. The lawsuit, which challenges the structure of the national Blue Cross Blue Shield system, is one of the largest multidistrict litigation actions in the U.S. and could have a profound impact on healthcare delivery for millions of Americans. In re Blue Cross Blue Shield Antitrust Litigation (MDL No. 2406)

- Representation of Catholic Dioceses

Represents Catholic Dioceses in an ongoing Attorney General investigation related to alleged clergy abuse. As counsel, interfaces with the Attorney General's office concerning the investigation and advises the client of its rights and duties related to the investigation.

- Representation of National Banking Institution as Local Counsel in High-Profile Trial

The jury returned a verdict in favor of our client on plaintiff's claims that the bank violated its constitutional right to enter into contracts. Life for Relief and Development v. Talmer Bancorp, Inc., et. al., 2:12-cv-13550-DPH-RSW.

- Representation of a Catholic Church and Members of Its Clergy in a Defamation Matter before the Michigan Appellate Courts

Represented a Catholic church and members of its clergy in a defamation matter. On remand from the Michigan Supreme Court, the Court of Appeals ruled in favor of our clients, holding in a published opinion that a false accusation of simple battery will only constitute defamation per se if the crime of battery subjects the plaintiff to involves "moral turpitude" or "infamous punishment" which did not exist in this case. Lakin v. Rund, No. 323695, 2016 WL 7022886 (Mich. Ct. App. Dec. 1, 2016).

- Representation of a Health Insurer in Antitrust Actions Brought by U.S. Department of Justice and Its Competitors

Represented one of the state's largest health care insurance companies against a series of lawsuits alleging violations of the Sherman Act and state antitrust laws.

- Representation of an Employer before the Michigan Court of Appeals on a Workers' Compensation Claim

Represented an employer before the Michigan Court of Appeals regarding whether a state circuit court had subject matter jurisdiction over the employee's workers' compensation claim. Bessinger v. Our Lady of Good Counsel/Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Detroit, No. 316143, 2014 WL 4347508 (Mich. Ct. App. Sept. 2, 2014), appeal denied, 497 Mich. 973 (2015).

- Representation of a Health Insurance Provider before

State Supreme Court, Holding that Injured Motorist Is Not Entitled to Double Recovery

Represented a health insurance provider before the Michigan Supreme Court, where it held that an injured motorist was not entitled to recover from both his own health insurer and the other motorist's automobile insurer for the same injuries incurred in an accident. Harris v. Auto Club Ins. Ass'n, 835 N.W.2d 356 (Mich. 2013).

- Appellate Defense of Bankruptcy Court Decision Regarding Litigation Fees and Costs

Represented appellee-debtor on appeal before a U.S. District Court related to a creditor's contention that the bankruptcy court erred in its calculation of litigation fees and costs that the debtor owed to the creditor after years of contentious and costly litigation. John Richards Homes Building Co., LLC v. Adell, No. 15-10007, 2015 WL 5121359 (E.D. Mich. Aug. 31, 2015).

- Representation of Pension Plan on Appeal Before Michigan Court of Appeals

Represented appellee-pension plan before the Michigan Court of Appeals after appellants-pension holders appealed a summary judgment ruling that shut down their action seeking an equitable accounting of their employer's pension plan. Macey v. Archdiocese of Detroit Priests' Pension Plan, Inc., No. 318617, 2015 WL 1214589 (Mich. Ct. App. Mar. 17, 2015).
