Mackenzie E. Clark focuses her practice on representing employers in a broad range of labor and employment matters, including complex labor and employment issues related to the FMLA, ERISA, ADA, and more.

Before joining Bodman, Mackenzie was an associate attorney at another Michigan-based law firm where she counseled Taft-Hartley Fund employers on compliance issues with federal law. She also assisted clients in understanding federal labor and employment statutes, including ERISA, FMLA, RLSA, and NLRA.

As a law student, Mackenzie was a law clerk for a personal injury law firm and prepared pleadings for personal injury, auto, and no-fault cases. Mackenzie also served as a judicial clerk to the Hon. Terrence Berg of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan. She was the symposium director for the University of Detroit Mercy Law Review and was a senior member of the Moot Court Board of Advocates.
