Before joining Bodman, Christina served as in-house ERISA and Employee Benefits Compliance Counsel for a global insurance brokerage and consulting firm. Prior to that, she was Associate General Counsel for a leader in the development and implementation of insurance programs for the health care industry. Her in-house experience provides her with unusual insight into the challenges these complex organizations face in complying with ever-changing state and federal laws and regulations. She began her legal career in private practice with several prominent Chicago law firms representing corporate clients in employment and employee benefits matters and in general civil litigation matters at the trial and appellate levels.
