Morgan Hudec has more than eight years of experience serving high net worth individuals and families through various roles within the High Net Worth Group.

Her practice focuses on estate planning, trust and estate administration, and related corporate and real estate matters.

She works closely with ultra-high net worth families to develop and implement estate planning strategies and guide the administration of trusts and estates. She helps clients navigate the complex legal, financial, and personal considerations that accompany multigenerational wealth planning.

Morgan also has experience working with family offices of varying sizes, coordinating with internal teams and external advisors to deliver comprehensive support tailored to each family's unique objectives.
