Ethan McGraw advises high-net-worth individuals on estate planning, related tax and personal business matters, and the administration of trusts and estates.

Before joining Bodman as an associate, Ethan participated in the firm's summer associate program, gaining experience with Bodman's High Net Worth Practice Group. In that role, he drafted and refined estate planning, business, and real estate documents and conducted comprehensive legal research.

Ethan's prior legal experience includes internships with the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan and a Michigan-based defense litigation firm, as well as a summer clerkship with the Oakland County Circuit Court. Before beginning his legal career, he worked as an investment banking analyst at a Birmingham-based advisory firm.

While attending Wayne State University Law School, Ethan served as a Moot Court senior coach and co-founded the Jewish Law Students Association.
