Bodman Attorney Kathleen O'Callaghan Hickey Elected to Walsh College Foundation Board

DETROIT, MI, August 20, 2014 Kathleen O'Callaghan Hickey has been elected to the Walsh College Foundation Board of Directors for a three-year term.

Walsh College is a private, not for profit institution offering upper-division undergraduate and graduate business and technology degrees and certificate programs that was founded in 1922. The Walsh College Foundation, established in 2004, serves as the official fundraising arm of the college. The foundation encourages private giving and ensures the integrity of the college's philanthropy program. The foundation is led by volunteers who are business, industry, and community leaders.

Hickey, a member of Bodman's Banking Practice Group, focuses her practice representing financial institutions in commercial loan originations. Her practice encompasses secured transactions, loan workouts, and counseling lenders on lender liability and loan structure issues. Her practice also includes middle market lending, asset based loans, healthcare, educational institution and religious organization financing, international lending, captive insurance financing, private lending, real estate financing, multi-rate, multi-currency loans and facilities, agented and syndicated loan facilities, and letters of credit and other liquidity facilities supporting tax exempt and industrial development bonds.

Hickey is listed in The Best Lawyers in America 2015 under Banking and Finance Law, Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business 2014 under Banking & Finance, Michigan Super Lawyers 2007 under The Top 50 Women, and Michigan Super Lawyers 2007-2013 under Banking.
