Bodman PLC Named 2015 Michigan Firm of the Year by Benchmark Litigation

DETROIT, MI, February 25, 2015 – The internationally recognized client and peer-review journal Benchmark Litigation has named Bodman PLC its Michigan Law Firm of the Year for the second straight year.

The selection was announced at a national award ceremony held at the Essex House in New York. State winners are chosen based on an analysis of case matters held during the prior year, including potential precedent set or verdicts with notably high dollar amounts at stake.

Benchmark Litigation is the country's only publication that focuses exclusively on law firm litigation departments. The editors rank litigation firms each year based on an exhaustive research process that includes evaluating recent work highlights from each firm, interviewing dozens of clients, and soliciting comments from peer firms within the same jurisdiction. As a result of that process, Bodman was ranked as "highly recommended" for business litigation, the highest level possible, and 13 Bodman attorneys were listed as "Litigation Stars" or "Future Stars." Bodman has more individually ranked attorneys than any other Michigan-based law firm.

Bodman's Litigation and Alternative Dispute Practice Group focuses on a wide variety of civil disputes ranging from simple breach of contract claims to antitrust, securities, professional liability, trade secret, and other complex matters.
